

CURIOUS MOOSE ASKING QUESTIONS ABOUT RACE NIGHT...

Moose: I've been thinking about joining the BLC Race Night but I am still doubtful! Never been to one! What is it? Is it fun?

Chair: I understand your doubts, Moose, but sometimes you have to join and take the risk to discover the fun. But to answer your question, it is an evening where you bet and can win! - on horse races. Of course, the races will not be live, but shown pre-recorded on TV screens around the venue.

Moose: Yes, but how does it exactly work?

Clare: You can bet on the races for €1 per ticket. Half of the proceeds of each race will go to charity and the other half distributed to the holders of the winning tickets. You can also sponsor a horse in one of the races for €5. Choose a name and your horse will be in the race programme and you can support it on the night. Winning owners will receive a prize. For the final race, there will be an auction of the horses on the night.

Moose: Ok, now I understand a bit more. Where will it be held? Is there food? Food makes it more interesting for me!

Chair: The Race Night will be held at Top Squash! And of course there is food, Moose! I love food, too! But more precisely, it will be a walking cocktail" style with ribs, chicken wings, sandwiches, chicken dips, vegetables and chips with homemade dip and all drinks - softs, beer, wine - until the last race is finished; there will be a prize for the best dressed lady and best dressed gentleman, if you want to dress for the races - but you don't have to!

Moose: Good, because I don't like to dress up, but my friend and her partner love to. By the way, they are not BLC Members. Are they still allowed to join?

Clare: Of course, Moose! Both Members and Non—Members are welcome to join! It's a fun evening open to everyone, although the number of people is still limited, so Hurry!!

Chair: Are you serious? Are you still thinking? Book your spot immediately! Clare will give you the bank details!

Moose: Sounds so much fun! I think I will join!

Clare: Yes, Moose! 30 Euros P/P at BLC Special Events bank account (LU08 0019 2955 6611 7000), stating "Your name + guest names -race night"

Moose: Ok, will do it immediately! THANK YOU for all the clarifications and see you there!
